

The Battle for the Christian's Thinking, part 2

I. Review of terms:

1. A lust is a strong desire.
  - 1) There are 'good' lusts (1 Tim. 3:1).
  - 2) Three are 'bad' lust (Rom. 6:12).
    - i. Lusts from the flesh (Rom. 13:14).
    - ii. Lusts from Satan (Jn. 8:44).
    - iii. Lusts from the world system (1 Jn. 2:16-17).
2. Temptation is used in Scripture as a solicitation to evil (Jam. 1:13).
3. The sin nature, sin principle, and the flesh are all terms describing the same entity that is within all mankind since Adam (Eph. 2:3; Rom. 7:25; Rom. 7:18). It is a bent nature, the propensity to sin.
4. Sin is acting as though God has no restraints on behavior.
  - 1) "Everyone crafting the sin, also crafts lawlessness, and the sin is the lawlessness" (1 Jn. 3:4)
  - 2) Lawlessness is acting without limits.
5. Sin is an act exterior to the body (1 Cor. 6:18; Rom. 7:20).

II. An idea goes to a lust, lust to temptation, temptation to trespass, trespass to sin, and sin to punishment (Jam. 1:13-15).

James 1:13-15

<sup>13</sup> Let no one say, when being tempted, "I am being tempted from God." Because God is unable to be tempted by that which is lacking in character, and He himself tempts no one. <sup>14</sup> But each one is tempted by his very own lust, being drawn out and enticed like with bait. <sup>15</sup> Then the lust having been conceived, bears like a child sin, and the sin having become fully grown births the process of death.

- God is not the source of temptation.
- God cannot be tempted.
- A person makes a lust his own.
- The lust entices a person like bait.
- The lust conceives.
- The lust grows.
- The lust gives birth to sin.
